Higher Education Experience

Instructor University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 2019-2021

In addition to serving as resident sound designer and audio engineer, I taught one class in the spring: Intro To Sound Design (Undergraduate Level Course), and was one of three lecturers for Drama 821, where I helped technical director students learn basic audio engineering. I also guest lectured several classes for various technical, design, and general theatre courses for undergraduate and graduate students. I also evaluated and educated students for crew positions on mainstage productions.

Graduate Assistant University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign 2016-2019

Responsibilities include sound supervision and maintenance over five spaces at the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts during the school year. Responsible for advising and mentoring undergraduate designers and technicians as well as the local IATSE crew for load-ins, load-outs, show runs, and designing productions. Taught one class, THEA453: Intro to Theatre Sound (Graduate and Undergraduate level course). Responsible for budgeting, purchasing, and repair and maintenance as an engineer for student designers. Served as FOH/A1 and Monitor/A2 for various touring acts that visited the venue. Evaluated technical riders, coordinated rentals and purchases for various touring groups, for both resident and professional marquee events. Oversee load-ins of sound systems, programming of sound consoles, and provided training and guidance for student designers and operators. Helped setup and maintained assisted listening devices during resident productions.

Professional Experience

Sound Supervisor Lookingglass Theatre Company (Chicago, IL) 2021-Current

Responsible for the leadership and operation of the sound department. Planned, managed, and implemented all sound related materials for three-to-four mainstage productions per year and other events as assigned. Organized, maintenance, and reinvented organization of in-house sound materials. Planned out infrastructure of productions with either in house equipment, rented, or ordered sound equipment as needed. Worked collaboratively with designers to reach a final sound product in-line with design intent while meeting industry standard safety practices, established deadlines, and budgets. Planned out and execute all sound load-ins, system tunings, tech rehearsals, and loadouts. Hire and supervise per show and seasonal sound positions for these duties with regard to best hiring practices and labor laws. Supervised department budgets as well as show budgets. Managed weekly payroll and financing reporting for all hired sound staff. Helped create job descriptions and contracts for all sound staff postings. Served as sound board operator which included live mixing, running sound cues with QLab for mainstage productions and various events.

Audio Lead Chicago International Puppet Festival (Chicago, IL) 2023

Served as the lead audio engineer for all the productions taking place at both theatres inside the Chopin Theatre. Reviewed technical riders from visiting companies and interpreted what was needed to produce the show in both spaces. Coordinated gear for the festival based on what was in the space versus needed to be rented. Worked with visiting companies to design sound systems for both spaces
